TO

JUSTIN WINSOR,

WHOSE NAME OCCURS OFTENEST IN THIS LIST,

I DEDICATE IT,

AS SOME RECOGNITION OF HIS WORK IN AMERICAN BIBLIOGRAPHY.

NOTE.

In the following list I have included only such library, auction, and booksellers' catalogues as appear to me to have a real value for reference, either from the character of the collection, the method of arrangement, the careful cataloguing, or annotating.

The letter to the left of the number denotes the character of the work, thus :

A signifies Auction Sale Catalogue.
B " Bibliography.
C " Booksellers' Catalogue.
L " Public Library Catalogue.
P " Private Library Catalogue.
R " Reference List,
W " List of writers.

And the sign to the right shows the method of arrangement, thus :

* signifies arranged Alphabetically, by authors.
† " " Alphabetically, by subjects.
‡ " " Chronologically.
‖ " " Classically.

Where two or more signs are used, the first shows the method of arrangement, and those that follow indicate indexes on whatever system the sign denotes.

These brief titles are designed as the working basis for a full and critical catalogue of Bibliographies, Catalogues, Reference Lists, and Lists of Authorities of American books and subjects, and I shall be grateful for any additions or corrections. I am under obligation to Mr. W. Eames, Mr. W: C. Lane, Mr. C: A. Nelson, and to all the authors of the class of Bibliography herein, for assistance in the compilation.
